Convincing Q1 results - Buy

The earnings in Q1 benefited from the recent Frigoscandia exit (exit gains of c.EUR 50m). The convincing development in Q1 did not come as a surprise for us and it shows the value potential Mutares can unlock through exits. The company's FY 2024e guidance implies further exits with meaningful impacts. Following the brisk M&A activity and the successful transformation process, the basis for potential exits is broadening. We leave our estimates unchanged as we continue to only include already announced transactions. On the back of the improved sentiment for its portfolio, the shares continued their strong performance (ytd. +22%). Based on our DDM and peer group valuation we derive a new TP of EUR 48 (prev. EUR 45.50) and confirm our Buy rating.

Convincing start into year

The Q1 highlight was the closing of the Frigoscandia exit, which resulted in exit gains of c.EUR 50m and thus was the main driver of the Q1 holding net income of EUR 51.3m (Q1 2023: EUR 8.2m). During the Q1 conference call, the management stated that the earnings improvement was held back by additional costs in the amount of approximately EUR 5.5m (thereof EUR 2.5m in conjunction with the tap issue and EUR 3m related to the divestment of Valti). The very solid holding revenues of EUR 29.3m (PASe: EUR 28.5m) are a result of the increased number of portfolio companies following Mutares' brisk M&A activities in the past quarters. On consolidated level, group revenues increased on the back of the acquisition by 21% yoy to EUR 1.35bn. The adj. EBITDA on consolidated level improved to a good EUR 14m, which was driven by the successful transformation in the Automotive and Mobility segment (adj. EBITDA of EUR 22.3m).

FY 2024e guidance confirmed

As expected, Mutares has confirmed its FY 2024e guidance, which calls for a holding net income of EUR 108m to EUR 132m (2023: EUR 103m). In view of the achieved EUR 51m in Q1, the remaining EUR 69m (at the mid-point of the range) implies further exits with meaningful earnings contributions. We believe that the net income guidance also reflects the management's confidence in the current portfolio status and its possibility to trigger further exits in the near term. Within the current portfolio 13 group companies (share of 45%) are categorized in the Optimization phase, where the restructuring already bears fruits and initial upstream dividends can be expected. We leave our estimates (net income 2024e of EUR 70.3m, only announced transactions are included) unchanged.
